

MAAP

MASTER ARTIST APPRENTICE PROGRAM FY2022

JENNIFER SARGENT
FIBER/TEXTILE

Jennifer Sargent is an artist based in Memphis, Tennessee. She has a BA in woven textiles from Middlesex University, London, England and an MFA in Fibers from Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona.

Jennifer discovered tapestry at the Scheuer Tapestry Studio in New York and worked there for two years. She taught fibers at the University of North Texas for four years and at Memphis College of Art for twelve years, where she was also Director of Exhibitions for six of those years.

Her art making concentrates on woven tapestry and drawings with pieces held in both private and public collections including the Tennessee State Museum, the City Collection of Memphis, Christian Brothers University and the Wichita Center for the Arts. She has received an Individual Artist Fellowship from the Tennessee Arts Commission, was named a 2016 inductee into the Costume and Textile Institute, Nashville as well as receiving numerous other awards.