EMERGING MAKERS TENT OVERVIEW

45th Annual Fall Tennessee Craft Fair | October 13, 14 & 15, 2023
Friday and Saturday 10 am – 6 pm | Sunday 10 am – 4 pm

Tennessee Craft and the Fair Committee are pleased to offer an exclusive opportunity for our member artists interested in taking their craft business to the next level. In the Emerging Makers Tent, groups of artists representing our statewide chapters work together in a supportive environment to gain practical experience selling their artwork at a professional craft fair, aided by a mentor. This experience is designed to help emerging makers build the skills they need and take the next step toward exhibiting as independent artists on the main tent circle at Tennessee Craft fairs.

Emerging makers may be artists of any age or background who are:
- beginning their professional craft career,
- working in a new medium,
- exhibiting at a Tennessee Craft Fair for the first time, and have not previously exhibited at craft fairs of the caliber of the Tennessee Craft Fair.

Mentors are alumni of the Emerging Makers Tent or the Tennessee Craft Fair main tent circle who are:
- selling artwork in the Emerging Makers Tent,
- selling artwork on the main tent circle, or
- willing to be on-site during the Fair to assist emerging makers without selling.

Participation is open to members of a Tennessee Craft chapter. Offering this outlet to emerging makers works toward Tennessee Craft’s mission of encouraging, developing and promoting crafts and craftspeople in Tennessee.

The Emerging Makers Tent application is available online at:

Exhibitors agree to indemnify and hold harmless Tennessee Craft, Metro Parks and Metro Government of Nashville and Davidson County for any claims for damage, loss or injury which relate to or in any way arise from acts or omissions connected to their participation in the Fall Tennessee Craft Fair 2023.

Tennessee Craft Fairs are a rain or shine event and may remain scheduled as planned, regardless of inclement weather. No refunds will be given due to interruption of the event or cancellation for reasons beyond the control of Tennessee Craft. These reasons include, but are not limited to weather, acts of God, acts of terrorism, public health or safety concerns, or governmental intervention. Tent, art, and other staking is not permitted, regardless of size of stakes. All fair participants are expected to exercise full and reasonable respect for other artists, Tennessee Craft staff and volunteers, and the public, including all who are participating in and at the fair. Any breach of reasonable behavior may result in a jury zero score and disqualification from participation in Tennessee Craft Fairs.

Tennessee Craft staff, along with the Fair Committee, reserve the right to request removal of any exhibited work not meeting the guidelines for eligibility or displays not meeting the guidelines for set up. Failure to comply with these policies will be taken into consideration when offering invitations to future shows.

The rules and policies outlined in this document are subject to change.
ARTIST SELECTION and FAIR PREPARATION

All Emerging Makers Tent and Mentor applications must be submitted online. A jury comprised of chapter presidents from each chapter with current fair EMT applicants will select the emerging artists. Chapter presidents who apply to exhibit in the Emerging Makers Tent must designate an alternate chapter officer to serve on the jury. Mentors will be selected by each chapter without jurying.

SELECTION PROCESS FOR EMERGING ARTISTS

1. After the application deadline, Tennessee Craft staff will review submissions for eligibility.
2. Tennessee Craft staff will provide the jury with the link to review and score eligible applications online.
3. A virtual meeting with Tennessee Craft staff will be scheduled to select the artists to be invited to exhibit in the Emerging Makers Tent.
4. After the meeting, Tennessee Craft staff will notify all applicants of the jury decisions and invoice selected artists via PayPal for the booth fee.

TIPS FOR SUCCESS

- Communicate in a professional and timely manner with your fellow emerging makers and mentor.
- Ask for advice from previous fairs’ emerging makers.
- Ask for advice from craft fair veterans in your chapter.
- Consider including a small sign with your artist statement or photos that highlight the basics or interesting parts in your creative process.
- Familiarize yourself with the credit card processing system prior to the fair.
- Visit tennesseecraft.org/events/craft-fairs and click on the button labeled Fair Prep for Invited Artists to download your own Fair Checklist, learn more about Artist Self-Promotion, and learn what artists exhibiting on the main tent circle do when exhibiting at Tennessee Craft fairs.
- Support your fellow emerging makers during load-in and load-out and during the fair to provide each other breaks and other assistance.

“I believe that our group was successful because each person had an equal say in the arrangement of our booth. We did not try to showcase only one maker, but thought long and hard about how all of the work looked together. We also assigned jobs (checkout, wrapping, etc.) and rotated those jobs throughout the day so that no one felt overwhelmed or felt like they couldn’t give their full attention to their customers.”

- Rachel Stovall, 2017 Spring Tennessee Craft Fair emerging maker
MENTORS

A mentor will be designated by the chapter president for each chapter’s section. The mentor will be chosen from all prospective mentors who complete an online mentor application.

Although the mentor is expected to take the lead, section artists should work together as a team to ensure smooth customer transactions and give each artist experience in performing the tasks every exhibiting craft fair artist must master (e.g., making display decisions, closing a sale, handling digital transactions).

Responsibilities include:

1. Generating interest in the Emerging Makers Tent within your local chapter and encouraging artists to apply.
2. Designing the layout of your chapter’s designated section in the Emerging Makers Tent and orienting your chapter’s artists.
3. Mentoring your chapter’s emerging makers regarding:
   ○ Transporting artwork
   ○ Displaying artwork
   ○ Preparing for difficult weather
   ○ Sales and financial processes
4. Coordinating with the chapter treasurer on all financial matters.
5. Bringing a cash box with change and credit card processing equipment.
6. Ensuring that Davidson County sales tax is being collected for each sale.
7. Ensuring that credit card sales are made directly into the chapter’s Square or PayPal account (not individual artist accounts), with credit to each artist in the sale.
   ○ If a chapter elects to give each artist in their designated section their own card reader, then the chapter is responsible for setting up user accounts for each person. This will allow the chapter to set limits on account capabilities and ensure that each artist has only the capabilities needed (i.e., artists will not be able to transfer or withdraw funds).
8. Ensuring that customer checks are made out to the chapter.
9. Ensuring that cash is placed directly into the cashbox.
10. Reconciling all cash, checks, and credit card sales at the end of each day using Square or PayPal software.
11. Working with the chapter treasurer to manage post-fair financial reporting of exhibitor sales and sales tax, including making sure artists, Tennessee Craft, and sales taxes are paid in a timely manner.

“As an artist, I learned the importance of good displays, communication and price range. I loved meeting with other artists and talking with customers.”

POST-FAIR ACCOUNTING

All Tennessee Craft chapters are required to follow the accounting procedures below for Emerging Makers Tent revenue. It is important for Tennessee Craft to abide by these consistent accounting procedures across the state to:

- Ensure that we maintain our 501(c)(3) status
- Prepare us for future audits
- Help exhibiting artists understand how booth sales work
- Facilitate an easy transition between chapter officers
- Ensure that we adhere to the Tennessee Department of Revenue special event tax laws

Because of this, we require that all Tennessee Craft chapters follow guidelines for Emerging Makers Tent sales and accounting at the Fairs. These guidelines should be managed by the mentor and chapter treasurer.

All transactions (cash, credit card, and check) for each chapter section will go through the chapter bank account. An overall sales summary for each artist and detailed transaction list including the subtotal, tax, and grand total for each transaction must be submitted in a spreadsheet to Bonnie Matthews, Director of Programs & Community Engagement, at membership@tennesseecraft.org.

The week after the fair, each chapter treasurer should double-check the sales summary, reconcile the sales income received, deposit that income (and any starting cash) into the chapter checking account, and write:
- a check to each artist for their net profit (80% pre-tax minus any credit card / chapter fees),
- one check to Tennessee Craft for commission on all sales (20% calculated before tax added and credit card fees deducted, with a maximum commission of $500 for mentors), and
- one check to the Tennessee Department of Revenue for sales tax.

SALES TAX RESPONSIBILITIES

It is your responsibility to collect sales tax. The current tax rate is: 9.25%.

Chapter mentors and treasurers will file the sales tax return for your group online via the state’s new TNTAP (Tennessee Taxpayer Access Point) system at tntap.tn.gov/eservices.
